The Conservative council hopeful will be investigated after Thursday's election

Gypsy rant: candidate suspended

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A TORY council hopeful has been suspended by his party after he was caught up in a row over a racial slur.

A Facebook group run by David Coulter, the prospective candidate for Limbury ward, posted a message last Monday warning that travellers had parked up in the area, referring to them as 'pikies.'

The post also referred to them as 'thieving troublemakers'.

The Conservative Party has suspended Mr Coulter following the rant, pending an investigation which will be held following Thursday's election.

The post read: 'Red Alert! Be aware the pikies have moved the car park at the shops. LOCK YOUR DOORS - GUARD YOUR VEHICLES.'

'It is not politically correct, but be damned, they are thieving troublemakers and we need vigilance.'

'Watch out for your neighbours, and let them know!'

'Can we all call the police and the council too. Enough calls and they have to respond by law.'

Margaret Simons, deputy chairwoman political of Luton Conservatives, said: 'We absolutely denounce the comments made on the page.'

'They were posted by a fellow admin and David has been reprimanded.'

Luton's council Conservative leader, Michael Garrett said: 'I'm guessing the post must have been made in anger.'

The post also drew strong criticism from a group campaigning for travellers' rights.

Martin Howe, a trustee of the Traveller Movement, a group which, among other things, aims to increase political involvement among the travelling community, said: 'That type of racist, discriminatory comment has no place in society, or anywhere.'

'What's more disgraceful is that it was posted on a group run by someone who is standing for public office.'

'The negative stereotype against travellers and gypsies does a great deal of harm to women, children and the community as a whole.'

As a prominent human rights lawyer who works with travellers, Mr Howe added: 'I think this should be looked into by the police and see if it breaks any racial hate laws.'

A fellow trustee, Brian Foster, said: 'I am pleased to see the Luton Conservatives

IN HOT WATER: David Coulter has been suspended by the Conservative Party after racial slurs about travellers were posted on his Facebook group have suspended Mr Coulter.

'I hope Mr Coulter will visit the families concerned, not only to apologise, but also to understand more about them as constituents.'

When Luton on Sunday tried to contact Mr Coulter, it was said he would not be commenting.

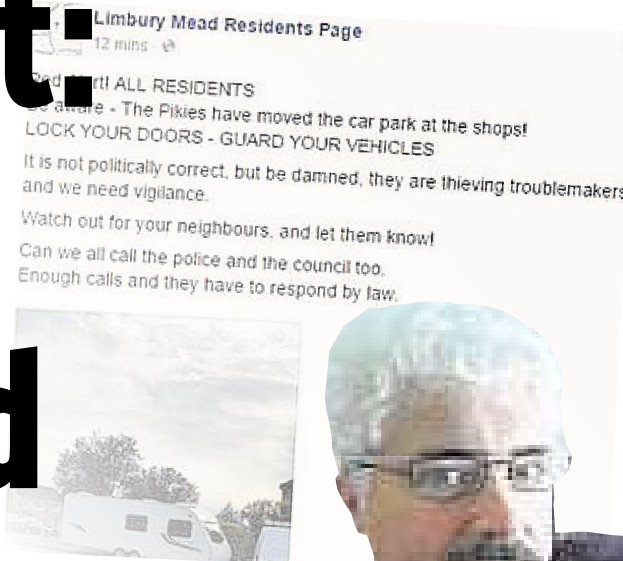

However, posting on the Limbury Mead Residents Page on Facebook, where the offending comment was originally made, Mr Coulter said: 'I would like to personally apologise for the posts regarding the travellers that contained the slurs and assure you that normal service will be resumed.'

'This site is supposed to be informative and act as a sounding board, and not act as a forum for insults.'

'I take full responsibility, and have acted accordingly to ensure this does not repeat itself.'

Despite the suspension, Mr Coulter is still standing as the Conservative candidate for Limbury ward in the upcoming elections.

Illegals found in lorry taken away by the Home Office

IMMIGRANTS found in the back of a lorry earlier this week have been transferred to a detention centre and social services.

On Wednesday afternoon at around 4.40pm, 15 male immigrants - seven Syrians, five Iranians and three Iraqis, - were arrested on suspicion of immigration offences after Bedfordshire Police responded to reports that the men had been seen in the back of a lorry.

The force was joined by the East of England ambulance service who took five of the men to Luton and Dunstable Hospital for treatment.

They responded with two ambulance crews, two rapid response vehicles and two ambulance officers after they received reports that all of the men were suffering from breathing difficulties.

Their condition is not believed to be life-threatening or serious.

After the incident, a Home Office spokesman said 13 of the immigrants have since been taken to an immigration detention centre while their cases were considered.

The remaining two immigrants have been declared as minors and passed into the care of social services.

The lorry driver, who initially had been arrested by Bedfordshire Police on suspicion of facilitating their entry, has been released by the force.

Green Party

for the common good

SOFIYA AHMED- PARLIAMENTARY CANDIDATE FOR LUTON NORTH

Luton North and its residents are very important to me. I have been a passionate activist for social justice for years, campaigning against the dismantling of our welfare state and terrible burden of student debt my generation has been burdened with. Young people's futures have been neglected by government and I stand to change that, so that everyone can prosper in our society. So that wealth isn't concentrated in the small bubble of the 1%.

I believe if we want real change in parliament it needs to represent our diversity not just a male, middle aged, rich demographic, who don't understand the needs of a town like Luton.

THE GREEN ALTERNATIVE

We're fighting austerity, because it's wrong that the poor and vulnerable are being made to pay for the mistakes and fraud of the bankers. We're the only ones pledging to end the privatisation experiment in the NHS – and bring the delivery of healthcare into public ownership. And, of course, it's only the Green Party that recognise the threat of climate change and pledge to take the action required to build a low carbon economy that works for generations to come.

Greens are the only ones to stand up for the most vulnerable people in society, and across the world. That's why we're pledging to end in-work poverty by making the Minimum Wage a Living Wage. It's why we'll double child benefit, so no kids in this country grow up in poverty, and it's why we'll increase aid spending to 1% of GDP – to fight disease, hunger and inequality abroad as well as at home.

YOUR LUTON NORTH PARLIAMENTARY CANDIDATE

SIMON HALL

I am a Lutonian - born at the Luton & Dunstable hospital - and have lived and worked in Luton for most of my life. I have chosen to make Luton my home because of the opportunities the town has given me, the multicultural community here, the public transport links to other towns, and the wide range of public services, entertainment and shops. I am aware of the issues facing our town, and which areas need improving. I'm keen to improve outsiders' perception of the town, and to continue to make it a town in which people are proud to live and work, and to attract new business to the town.

I was educated at Bushmead Junior School, Icknield High School, Luton Sixth Form College and Dunstable College before completing a degree in Product Design at the University of Bedfordshire (then called the University of Luton). For the past twelve years I have run a design and manufacturing company based in Luton and employing local people. I have been a member of the Green Party for over ten years, and held the position of local party treasurer for five years. If elected, I will do my very best to serve our local community and to implement Green policies on a local and national level.

We need to see a real change in Luton and in this country as a whole. We need a more equal society, where all can achieve our full potential regardless of race, faith, sexual orientation or gender.

Green Party membership in Luton and Bedfordshire has increased by seven times in the past twelve months. People want to see a real change in this country, and Green policies offer a real solution. I invite you to visit the Green Party web site www.greenparty.org.uk and read our mini-manifesto - just fifteen pages. The Green Party policies offer genuine, effective, fully-costed solutions to the economy, the health service and education.

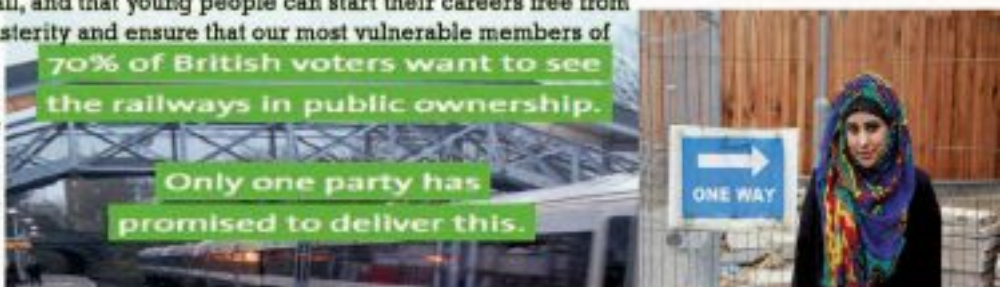

We need to end the demonisation of immigrants. After all, immigration is what has created Luton's diverse multi-cultural population in the first place. We need to change Britain's aggressive foreign policy, which has resulted in extremism and terrorism in the Middle East.

We need to combat the rise of the far right and its irrational fear of Islam and anything it perceives to be foreign. We need to bring an end to tuition fees so that higher education is available to all, and that young people can start their careers free from debt. Let's rebuild the public services destroyed by austerity and ensure that our most vulnerable members of society receive vital support. Let's make food banks a thing of the past - it is a disgrace to our society that in 2015 people are forced to resort to these. I believe the Green Party is the only party committed and able to carry out the social, economic and environmental reform that our country so desperately needs. Please use your vote on May 7th to bring a real, positive change.

Please vote for the Green Party.

70% of British voters want to see the railways in public ownership.

Only one party has promised to deliver this.

Surge in number of sexual assault reports

BY JENNA HUTBER
 editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

JUST 12 per cent of sexual assaults reported in Bedfordshire in the last year resulted in a prosecution.

Figures released in a Freedom of Information request made by Luton on Sunday revealed that although more people are coming forward to report sexual assault, with 905 reports across the county in 2014 compared with 504 in 2010, the number of attackers being charged has actually decreased since 2011.

The number of sexual abuse cases closed by police has increased from 20 per cent in 2010 to 67 per cent in 2014, yet in 2011 only 35 per cent of reports resulted in someone being charged, dwindling to 28 per cent in 2012 and 17 per cent in 2013. Senior officers from Bedfordshire Police's rape investigation unit said the surge in the number of serious sexual assaults are historical reports, prompted by media exposure of longstanding abusers such as Jimmy Saville and Rolf Harris.

Detective Inspector Jenni McIntyre Smith said: "It is so important that people continue to come forward and report historic sexual assault so we have as much information as possible about what has happened. We would absolutely encourage victims to come forward."

Despite the low charge rate, officers claim their investigations are victim-led and that a successful result isn't always about obtaining a prosecution.

Detective Sergeant Scott Carter said: "Right from the start everything we do is victim-led."

"We don't just investigate the crime, we also work with support groups to make sure victims are holistically supported through the process. For victims of sexual assault, redress is not always about prosecution."

The results also showed teenagers are significantly more likely to report a sexual assault.

Det Ins McIntyre Smith said: "Awareness has really increased among this age group - education has helped young people identify sexual assault when it happens."

Victims are now able to give evidence in court via video link and forensic science has become increasingly refined over the last five years. Det Cons Gemma Pugh said advances in forensic science means that DNA can be sampled from clothing an alleged attacker has touched.

'Disgrace' taunt gets dismissed

TWO Conservative candidates have slammed a council's decision not to investigate an allegation that a serving member accused a prospective councillor of being 'a disgrace' to Islam.

Basit Mahmood said it was 'a joke' that an independent panel at Luton Borough Council had rejected the complaint he made about Labour Cllr Yaqub Hanif after they concluded he had not been 'acting in his capacity as an elected member at the time of the incident'.

In March this year, Luton on Sunday revealed that the Luton Conservative Party had lodged a complaint with the authority over the alleged remarks.

Mr Mahmood, who is a Muslim and is standing in the High Town ward, claimed Cllr Hanif, who is also a Muslim, said: 'You're a disgrace to your religion' after they bumped into each other outside Asda in Wigmore.

The allegations have been denied by Cllr Hanif, who said: "There is currently an election on and I will allow people to draw their own conclusions about why the allegation has been made."

The panel met on Thursday to discuss the issue and afterwards Mr Mahmood received a letter from the council's head of human resources.

It said the complaint was rejected because 'the panel did not consider Cllr Hanif was acting in his capacity as an elected member at the time of the incident'.

Mr Mahmood said: "I think it's a joke because that means a councillor can behave however they want in public and when they are not in the chamber."

"If you are a councillor you are a real member, who draws the line? It's a silly line to draw. I do not understand why they said he was not acting as a councillor at the time."

"Who decides if you are a councillor and if you are not? If you are elected, you are elected."

Cllr Mike Garrett, leader of the Luton Conservatives, added: "If you are an elected member you are a councillor wherever you are and you have to uphold that. I've always believed that being a councillor is an honour and you don't embarrass yourself. I will be contacting the powers that be to say I do not accept it."

Roy puts himself on map with £1million win

A CARTOPHILE put his map skills to the test and won £1million.

Roy Tyler, 57, from Leighton Buzzard has become the first winner of the £1m jackpot from the online map game Geolotto.com.

In the game powered by Google Maps, players choose squares from a map of Britain, which act as tickets for the weekly prize drop.

Roy began playing the game less than a year ago when he noticed this would be a fun way for him to combine his love of maps with the chance to win a bit of money.

Roy said: "I have always been a fan of maps, and love planning where I want to go and where I've been, so this seemed like a great game."

Roy put his £1 stake on his hometown of Watford and the personal connection worked in his favour.

And as you would expect from a map-lover, Roy and his family will be spending their winnings on travel.

Roy said: "£1 million is a substantial amount of money and we look forward to using it to travel to places we have never seen before."

MILLIONAIRE: Map enthusiast Roy will be spending his winnings on travel

Charity raises cash for new special trike

A TEN-YEAR-OLD boy who has Down's syndrome and leukaemia has received a specialist tricycle that will allow him to ride outside with his friends and family for the first time.

Bradley North, from Bramingham Wood, who also has a painful hip condition, is unable to ride a standard bicycle because of his condition.

Caudwell Children helped raise £2,500 for the trike after his mother Jane Willoughby got in touch with the charity.

She said: "I can't really put into words what it means to Bradley. He simply loves the trike. He's been out pedalling after his dad and his friends with a huge smile on his face."

AND HE'S OFF: The trike has been specially designed to make pedalling easier for Bradley

Labour 'division' over out of town councillor

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO senior officials from the Labour party have had a spat over a councillor who has not been based in the town in the months leading up to the election.

Gavin Shuker, parliamentary candidate for Luton South, is said to have dismissed Cllr Paul Castleman, the party's chief whip, from his office in Union Street last Thursday after the pair argued over Amy O'Callaghan, who is standing as a councillor in Luton but has been in Great Yarmouth campaigning for another Labour candidate over the past few months.

The issue has caused 'division' in the party according to a long-time Labour member who wishes to be anonymous.

Cllr O'Callaghan has been working for Lara Norris, Mr Shuker's former office manager who was chosen by Labour to stand as a parliamentary candidate.

The Labour supporter said: "The altercation was about Amy O'Callaghan, a councillor in the south ward who is in Great Yarmouth and is not canvassing for her vote."

"People are saying why is she not in Luton trying to get Gavin Shuker elected?"

"There has been a discussion about that for the last few months."

They added: "As a member of the Labour Party, I feel that we have been let down by our prospective MP Gavin Shuker. That is not the way to behave and it goes against all the values of the Labour cause and to behave in that way, he should stand down."

Luton on Sunday left messages for Mr Shuker but received no reply.

Both Cllrs Castleman and O'Callaghan declined to comment.

Shop owner calls for police support

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carlmungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SHOPKEEPER who performed a citizen's arrest on a thief has accused the police of not doing enough to protect small businesses.

Shahzad Khadam, who runs the Day One store in High Town, has been robbed twice in the past fortnight.

In the first theft on April 20 a man stole a £30 bottle of champagne. This was followed by two women stealing goods worth £40 on Tuesday.

Mr Khadam performed a citizen's arrest on the first thief after he returned to his store this Monday. He called the police who then came and arranged for the man to pay some money to cover the champagne theft.

However, after the second

NOT FAIR: Mr Khadam

theft, Mr Khadam said no officer came out to see him and he was asked to send them his statement and CCTV footage through the post.

He said: "The police will not come out anymore. They do not send out officers to take statements, they will just send out an envelope. Luckily, with the citizen's arrest he did not resist and he made comments which the police heard.

"If I had not done that, they would not have come out. The 101 operator stayed on the line to make sure that nothing else happened."

"When people steal from small businesses it's not a big enough crime and it's not fair when you're trying to make an honest living."

A police spokeswoman said they now sent information packs to victims of crimes such as theft where was 'no obviously line of enquiry'.

She said this process meant more officers were available to 'protect our communities and tackle higher level incidents'.

£6.7m expansion to boost schools

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A £6.7 MILLION expansion for two schools has been signed off by councillors.

Richmond Hill School and Wigmore Primary School are set to have their capacity boosted after councillors agreed on the plans at a meeting on Monday.

Richmond, a special school for children aged 4-11 with severe learning disabilities, will expand from 120 to 230 places, with Wigmore going from 450 to 630.

It is hoped the expansion will meet an increase in demand for places which has led to some children not being able to secure places at local schools.

ON THE UP: Head Chris Davidson with Wigmore Primary pupils

Under the scheme, £5m will be spent on a new two-storey building for Richmond and £1.75m on a one-storey expansion at Wigmore.

Chris Davidson, headteacher at Wigmore, said the school was 'excited about the prospect of expanding in size and getting a rebuild'.

Depot chosen for new housing development

THE council has agreed to allow housing to be built on a former depot.

Birdsfoot Lane, which used to house Luton Borough Council's trading service BTS, has been earmarked for 18 flats and houses which will be built by a Housing Association yet to be announced.

The development will consist of 12 two-bedroom flats, 4 one-bedroom flats and 2 three-bedroom houses.

Councillors agreed the plans during a meeting on Monday.

Councillor Tom Shaw, who is in charge of housing, said it would help people who need to move in smaller accommodation as a result of changes to welfare.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

ADVERTISEMENT

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Hatters suspended after assault arrests

BY NICK SMITH

nicksmith@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO Hatters strikers have been released on bail following an alleged assault in the early hours of Monday morning.

Striker Ricky Miller, 26, was arrested at the scene on Monday, while winger Shaun Whalley, 27, was arrested the following day.

The alleged assault took place in Hockliffe, Bedfordshire.

It is alleged the pair got into a taxi outside Pink Punters nightclub in Milton Keynes, heading towards Dunstable.

Earlier they had been celebrating at the club's end of season awards.

Both players have been suspended, pending the outcome of the ongoing police investigation.

A spokesman for Luton Town FC said: "Luton Town Football Club can confirm that Ricky Miller and Shaun Whalley were arrested following an alleged incident.

"Subsequently, they have been suspended by the Club pending a police enquiry.

"Luton Town FC takes any allegation against a player or member of staff very seriously.

"An internal investigation is also underway and any player guilty of misconduct will be disciplined appropriately.

"The Club is unable to comment further at this stage.

"Both players have been released on bail and are due to answer it on June 2 at Luton Police Station."

Mr Whalley, who is out of contract with the club at the end of the season, had appeared in the 1-0 loss at Southend United last Saturday.

Speaking up to save lives

DIABETES is one of the biggest health threats facing the UK.

A staggering 3.8 million people are living with diabetes, and the increasing number of people being diagnosed with the condition is posing a real threat to the sustainability of our health service both locally and nationally.

Although there are some excellent examples of good diabetes care both here in Bedfordshire and across the country, there are still too many people with diabetes who are not getting the care or support they need to manage their condition well.

By putting diabetes on the national agenda, we can ensure that lives are saved and costs to the NHS greatly reduced.

'Boys in blue deserve better'

JIM Mallen, Beds Police Federation Chairman has waded in to support PCC Martins' unsubstantiated bid to jack up our council tax even more to enable the recruitment of more cops.

But he only manages to repeat the mistakes of the police commissioner. Again he simply compares the man-power of Beds police

Bobbies in a 'different world'

IN April 1956 I joined the Bedfordshire Constabulary as a constable.

At this time a police officer would be working a six day, 48-hour week. Around 90 per cent of police officers spent over seven hours of their eight-hour shift walking the beat.

Some officers would be allocated what was known as 'fixed points', these were prominent locations where officers were required to stand in all weathers for up to six hours at a time. You were permitted briefly to walk no more than 20 paces from your point but always to remain within view.

Officers were also expected to take over traffic control if at any time they identified traffic congestion. Before vehicles were fitted with flashing indicators all drivers would need to know and to use hand signals and to understand and conform to police hand signals.

Officers allocated patrol areas outside the town centre would carry out their patrol by pedal cycle but here instead of attending telephone kiosks in order to be contacted they would have one of the four 'Dr Who' type police boxes on their patch. Each box had an outside emergency telephone for public use.

On the roof there was a blue light, this would be illuminated to alert the beat officer that he was required so it was important on your patrol that the box was kept within view as much as possible. Inside the box you would simply find a wooden writing shelf, a stool and a telephone nothing more.

Soon most of the foot beat officers and all the village bobbies began to vanish from view to be replaced by officers patrolling in their panda cars. Over the years there have been numerous calls for the return of the beat bobby and despite frequent promises from various politicians nothing happens.

I can never personally see that we will ever again enjoy the regular sight of bobbies on the beat, those days have gone forever. We unfortunately now live in a different world. Les Barker Northants ing this game: after every 'adjustment' there would be someone else at the bottom of the league table who would then want increased funding - for no better reason than they were at the bottom.

It would result in an ever increasing spiral with no real justification at all.

In my opinion, PCC Martins has done nothing more than tinker around at the edges. Our heroic boys in blue deserve better.

An organisation that was designed to meet the needs of the nineteenth century surely needs a major re-think.

Not just cars and gadgets...or more money.

Voting with my feet

NIGEL Farage wants the UK to leave the EU. Nicola Sturgeon wants Scotland to leave the UK.

Yet, MPs talk down Nigel Farage at every opportunity, and Nicola Sturgeon is treated like a goddess. Surely breaking up the UK is much worse than leaving the EU.

It's this double-standards side of politics that most people don't like.

Politicians come across as a bunch of hypocrites.

This has helped me decide who I am voting for in the next election.

Bikes stolen from sea cadets' home

MOUNTAIN bikes worth £5,000 have been stolen from Luton Sea Scouts base.

The theft saw two buildings on the Luton Hoo site broken into on Tuesday April 21 and 10 bikes, along with cycling equipment, were stolen.

Luton unit chairman Flic Tompkins said: "The kids had only used them for the first time the weekend before."

"I hope anyone who knows anything comes forward."

Anyone with any information on the theft, contact Bedfordshire Police on 101.

Bus routes changed with 'no consultation'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

ANGRY residents have accused a bus company of making changes to its routes without any warning.

Centrebus has changed its 17/17a service, which serves the east of Luton, in order to create more direct links to the town centre.

However, it has also cut routes that previously passed through areas such as Telscombe Way in Wigmore.

Alan Nyman, 66, who lives in the area, said residents are now finding it difficult to reach local amenities.

He said: "Anybody who wants to go to Asda or Stopsley can't because if they want to do that they have to walk down to Wigmore Lane. For people who are disabled or infirm or can't walk it's a big problem."

"Centrebus said they spoke to customers but I cannot see any evidence of that and I certainly have not bumped into anyone who has had any consultation."

David Shelley from Centrebus said the changes had been widely advertised.

He said: "The change is intended to attract new customers through its simplicity, speed and convenience, and I am pleased that already there are signs of an increase in patronage"

He added services had new timings so people could switch buses to reach their destinations more easily.

Keep your postal vote safe

Voting by post is an easy and convenient way of voting if you are unable to get to your polling station on the day of an election. But remember, your postal vote is for you, and nobody else.

- As soon as you get your postal voting papers, put them somewhere safe where nobody else can pick them up
- Complete your ballot paper in secret, on your own
- Don't let anyone else vote for you
- Put your ballot paper and postal voting statement in the envelopes provided, and seal them personally
- Take your sealed postal vote to a post box yourself, if you can. Alternatively, give it only to someone you know and trust to post it for you.

BUSINESSES and residents have been told to 'watch this space' following the announcement of a new project manager for the town's business development district (BID).

Fabiana Panetta, a former Luton Borough Council planning officer, will lead the Luton BID which was launched earlier this year.

She is working for Partnerships for Better Business Ltd (pbbb UK), a management company which has managed BIDs for other places across the country.

Ian Ferguson, a director at pbbb, said the company would work with businesses to 'change the perception of Luton'.

Ms Panetta said: "We will be working towards our main theme which has been voted for by the businesses, which is promotion, environment and businesses working together. We are developing an action plan at the moment and this is the plan that will drive our plan for the next five years."

"The good thing is that the aim is the same as I had when I was as the council, which is to make Luton a better place."

"This is a business projected which is quite exciting. We will be bringing the businesses together next week and already certain things are being planned."

Mr Ferguson added: "At the moment there are a lot of people working very hard to do different things in Luton and there's nothing to co-ordinate it. I think that Luton has a lot to offer and one of the things for the BID to do will be to change the perception of Luton."

Right up your street

These streets are definitely not wingin' it

THIS week Howard Chandler writes about the wings fluttering beneath our street names...

Luton has 26 streets with 'pure' bird names and another 19 with associations with birds.

The Birds Estate in Lewsey Farm, built in the 1970s and 1980s has 17 bird names, along with names connected with farm implements and produce. Are they ones that were seen here when this area was farmland?

I spotted a list of birds found in Luton in 'The History of Luton' by Frederick Davis, which is freely available on the internet.

This tells us that 10 of the 17 birds were common in 1855 namely Bunting, Field Fare, Finch, Kestrel, Lapwing, Partridge, Raven, Sparrow and Swallow.

Buzzards were scarce in Luton, with no mention of Eagle, Gold Crest, Goshawk, Peregrine, Skua or Swan.

Do you live in one of Luton's 'birds' streets and see 'your' bird in the garden?

An Eagle flying over Eagle Close, though unlikely, would be something a cat would like to watch - from the safety of the house of course.

Eyesore is finally being destroyed

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

WORK has begun on the demolition of an unused industrial site in the town centre.

Power Court, off St Mary's Road, which has been vacant for years, is being cleared of a number of disused buildings dotted around the site.

It is currently not clear what will be built in its place as British Land, which owns the site, said it was in discussions with Luton Borough Council over what will be built there.

Some Luton Town fans have suggested it could be the location of the club's new stadium. The club has said it is looking at a number of sites and will not be making an announcement until later this year.

A Luton Borough Council spokesman said: "The timeline we received indicates the work will take place from mid-April through to the end of August."

"We needed to work with the Highway Authority in terms of access and the work will need to be carried out in stages due to issues relating to removal of asbestos and work on the protection of the culvert."

DEMOLITION: The majority of the derelict buildings will be pulled down during the year

He added: "The council wants to see a successful, sustainable Luton Town Football Club that helps promote the many positive aspects of the town, and a move to a new stadium is a long held aspiration for the club, supporters, the council and the town.

"Initial discussions have taken place with the council's planners on potential options and assessment work is ongoing, but at this stage we have not received a business plan or draft planning application."

Kevin's memory

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

WHEN the Kevin Duggan Golf Academy celebrates its tenth anniversary this July, it will be another leg in a journey that has seen one family successfully change the law in two countries.

Declan Duggan has worked tirelessly since the tragic accident that killed his son Kevin to use his life as a way of promoting sport and road safety.

Kevin died after unwittingly accepting a lift in a car driven by a drunk-driver in Dunstable in October 1988.

At the time, the driver was not tested after the crash because the law then made it an offence for doctors to take blood samples from an unconscious driver.

As a consequence Declan campaigned for the law to be changed, and in 2002 'Duggan's Law' was introduced in the UK and in Ireland last October.

In between all of that, Declan has also written a book about his journey and overseen the creation of the Academy in Stockwood Park.

He said: "It's been running for ten years, which is a great achievement, and the most recent thing we have had is some funding from the Ryder Cup European Trust Fund.

"It's for us to get out and invite lots of ethnic minorities in Luton who are not included in sport. We are working with the Asian community to bring up lots of young kids who do not usually do sport."

The Academy was set up after Luton and Dunstable residents raised £350,000. It started in 2002 as a driving and putting range and was completed in 2005.

Declan said: "Golf has this image of being a white middle class sport but it's not."

"What's really special about the Kevin Duggan Academy is that it has an open door policy, so everyone is welcome."

"Golf is one of the few sports where people can take part with any shape or size. It's one of the few sports where the family can all play

lives on in sport

INSPIRATIONAL: The Kevin Duggan charity has now been going for 10 years. It was set up following the death of Kevin in a car accident in 1988 together at the same level.

"There are very few sports where you can do that. We could not do that in other sports such as tennis but you can in golf because of the handicap system."

Declan said the Academy has acted as 'a reminder of what you can do out of a tragedy' for his family and a means of helping him to cope with Kevin's death.

He said: "It was my aim to take Kevin's life and turn it into something positive.

"If I stop doing it I might fall over and that's something I'm worried about. It's every parent's nightmare to lose one of your children but we have had the support of family and friends."

He added: "We are now working with Irish and British politicians to make Duggan's law a European-wide law.

"Lots of countries have different variations and different levels of blood testing but we are pushing to have a uniform system across all 26 countries. It's a big ask but we are plugging away. We have many people looking at it and we have great encouragement from that."

■ The Kevin Duggan Golf Day will be held on July 31 at Stockwood Park. For details call Declan on 07767 615433.

New multi-million pound Animal Management Centre opening at Capel Manor College

“There are more animals in Greater London than Norfolk and Suffolk put together.”

Boris Johnson, Mayor of London, at the opening of the first phase of the London Animal Management Centre at Capel Manor College

These new facilities at our Enfield Centre will raise animal management training provision across London to a totally new level and will provide the next generation of students with the skills, knowledge and experience to ensure the capital's animal population can be properly managed and cared for in the future.

Opening in September 2015, students joining the College will have access to over 1,000m² of modern learning space and a mini-zoo.

Unique opportunities

The new building will be integrated within a two-acre complex housing animals from all over the world in eco zones representing their natural habitat, it will provide students with unique opportunities to gain hands-on experience, caring for a wide range of animals from across the globe whilst gaining nationally recognised qualifications for employment or access to Higher Education.

Members of the public will also be able to enjoy the new facilities alongside 34 acres of world-famous gardens.

Find out more about our courses and the new facilities at our Enfield Advice Evening, Tuesday 12 May, 5.00pm to 7.30pm. The tour of the new centre will start at 5.30pm.

The new centre will have a dog grooming parlour, teaching veterinary unit and exotic and reptile animal housing.

YOU ARE INVITED TO

A FREE ASSESSMENT AND VALUATION DAY

You are invited to attend our assessment, valuation and purchase day, where TOP PRICES are agreed and offered.

Just bring along your chosen items; our valuer will give you a free appraisal and a current estimation of value. We will then discuss your best course of action and either make an offer of purchase or provide advice on your other options.

Antiques television programmes have made people more aware of the potential value of their belongings, however, the best method of realising the true cash value is not always made clear.

There are many items that are not so obviously valuable and this is where the professional valuer's expertise comes in.

There are times when the exposure of an auction is beneficial – let our experts help you to decide, but many items, where a known or intrinsic value can be simply assessed such as Gold, are just not suited for sale at auction.

Without advice, auctions can actually LOSE you money. After weeks of waiting, and assuming your item sells – commission charges, premiums and taxes reduce your likely share to only two thirds of the total transaction payment!

This is how we are able to offer you a high purchase figure as there's no premium for us and NO STOPPAGES for you, just an immediate cash settlement.

WHAT does it mean when a group of the town's top DJs meet on a Friday night in May for a show-piece talent contest?

It can only mean that the carnival is just around the corner.

On Friday, the Luton Association of Mas (LAM) is hosting a DJ competition designed to give the very best of Luton's carnival talent a chance to strut their stuff.

The event, aptly-named as the 'DJ Xplosion', will bring together DJs from various carnival groups for a night of soca, bhangra, hip-hop, afrobeat and samba.

Durrell Kuku, one of the many volunteers behind LAM, said: "The event is a chance to get people excited for the carnival and to raise awareness."

"We want everyone to come out and enjoy the hardwork that goes into it and the sound because that's what the carnival is all about."

"This year is going to be the 40th anniversary of Luton Carnival, so it's going to be big."

At the show, the audience, along with the panel of judges, will crown the lucky winner as the "Carnival DJ 2015". The winner will win a trophy on the night and then play at the gala event a few days later on May 16.

LAM is made of several carnival groups all representing different sections of the town's community.

These include the St Kitts and Nevis Friends Association, the Ghana Society, OM Group, Sickie Cell & Thalassaemia Care Forum, Samaritans, St Vincent the Grenadines, Scandalous, Revellers Steel Band and Nine Red.

Durrell said: "All of us in LAM are all volunteers in different groups but we are under the umbrella of the UK Centre for Carnival Arts (UKCCA). I'm from the Sickie Cell group and what we do is raise awareness that there's a support group out there for people who suffer from it."

Clary Salandy, UKCCA artistic director added: "Music is a key component of the carnival that gives it the essential injection of energy and movement."

"DJ Xplosion promises to be an evening full of some of the best carnival music from around the UK."

Tickets cost £4 and can be booked by calling 01582 437100.

THE JOHNNY CASH ROADSHOW

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Thursday

A TRIBUTE to one of the biggest artists of the 20th century and the only show to be endorsed by his family, The Johnny Cash Roadshow, is coming to The Grove.

Cash was one of the most revered and influential contemporary musicians of all time, with hits such Ring of Fire and Walk The Line still making him popular with audiences. There are still a number of performers who try and keep the works of The Man in Black alive even now, over 60 years since his first recording, Hey Porter, with the Tennessee Two.

The show stars a number of talented musicians, including Clive John as Johnny Cash and Jill Schoonjans as June Carter.

Tickets for the performance cost £19.50, with a £1.50 booking fee for phone and online purchases and are available from the box office, grovetheatre.co.uk or by calling 01582 602080.

THE year is 1962, the 50s are gone and change is in the air.

Baltimore's Tracy Turnblad, a big girl with big hair and an even bigger heart, has only one passion - dancing.

She wins a spot on the local TV dance programme, The Corny Collins Show and, overnight is transformed from outsider to irrepressible teen celebrity.

In the backdrop of the musical, performed by Dunstable's Amateur Operatic Society (DAOS), there's the running battle against segregation in 1960s America, with attitudes gradually beginning to change.

Using her fame and new friends, Tracey decides to do all she can to integrate in the show so it offers equality for all.

The musical was the winner of the 2008 Olivier Award for Best Musical and also adapted into a hit film.

Tickets range from £16.50-£18.50 and a £1.50 booking fee applies to tickets bought online or over the phone.

The King's Speech transfers from the screen to the stage

THE KING'S SPEECH

Milton Keynes Theatre

Tuesday May 5 - Saturday May 9.

7.30pm (2.30pm matinees on Weds and Sat)

THE OSCAR winning film about the difficulties of public speaking faced by King George VI has now been translated onto the stage.

Writer David Seidler always saw The King's Speech as a stage production, and now he has got his wish, with Australian star Jason Donovan taking on the role of speech therapist Lionel Logue alongside Raymond Coulthard as King George VI.

The Chichester Festival Theatre and Birmingham Repertory Theatre production sees Logue taking on the task of helping the King overcome a crippling stammer so as to enable him to deliver the now iconic speech that, in 1939, on the eve of war, was broadcast throughout the world to inspire his people.

The King's Speech is based on the true and heart-warming story of a man who never expected to be in the public eye let alone lead his country in time of war but who, with the help of a colourful Aussie ex-actor, overcame a debilitating affliction and guided this nation through its darkest hour.

Jason Donovan said of his character: "He was such an interesting and remarkable Australian who achieved so much in a very challenging situation. I think he is fascinating to play."

Tickets start at £11.90 and can be booked by calling 0844 871 7652 or visiting www.atgtickets.com/miltonkeynes

REVIEW

AVENGERS: THE AGE OF ULTRON

Cineworld

Various times this week

THE latest eye-popping epic from Marvel ambitiously reunites our favourite super heroes, and some new faces, as they fight against the latest threat to humanity.

When Tony Stark unwittingly brings his peacekeeping programme to life his plans for protecting the world go awry, as his twisted creation sets a sinister plan in motion to wipe out the human race.

Earth's heroes including Iron Man, Captain America, Thor, The Incredible Hulk, Black Widow and Hawkeye band together once more as they battle to save the world from the evil clutches of Ultron.

This time round director Joss Whedon takes us to the deeper and darker depths of our heroes' psyches. It's a welcome addition to the otherwise clichéd story and makes a significant chunk of the film feel grittier and darker.

That said, Age of Ultron still courageously careers forward with plenty of action packed fireworks, including a mind blowing punch up between Iron Man and The Hulk.

It's also great to see some character development from the 'will-they won't-they' romance between Bruce Banner and Black Widow, to Hawkeye's surprising backstory that Jeremy Renner delivers with plenty of humour and emotional grit.

Whedon also throws in twins

Quicksilver and Scarlet Witch: "he's fast and she's weird" and that's just the start. Referred to as "enhanced" rather than mutants (let's not even go there) this duo has plenty of screen time to explore their emotionally charged tragic back story, while still showing off their super-hero potential.

The backbone of Age of Ultron is effectively the same as the first instalment: they fight, fall out and conquer a giant swarming army. But there's plenty else for you to almost forget the clichés.

The sequel to the 2012 blockbuster succeeds where others have failed: it delivers a challenging bad guy, develops the central characters and retains the impressive scope set by its predecessor.

Talk discusses oppression and equality

AN author will be taking to the stage next weekend to discuss his latest book.

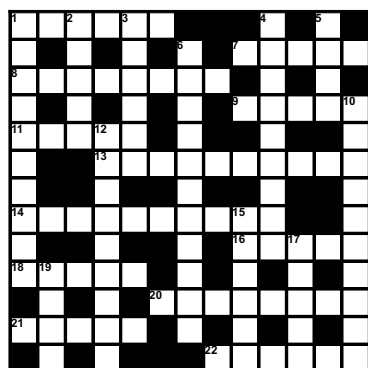

Barclays Amadi, a barrister from London, tackles the difficult subject of the oppression of women in Nigeria in his novel, Ada.

The author lays bare the limitations and hardships forced on women in a traditional, male-dominated society, and sets out the steps being taken by courageous, forward-thinking individuals to pursue the fight for equality.

This is a chance to meet Mr Amadi, who will be talking through the book and its subject matter with the audience and will also be signing copies at the end.

Entry is free and the talk runs from 2pm - 3.30pm on Saturday, May 9 at Luton Central Library.

What Your Agent Has To Say

Ideal mortgage solutions are a speciality

WHETHER you're buying your first home, moving house, re-mortgaging, buying to let or looking to extend your current home, we at Carpathian Finance Ltd specialise in finding tailor made mortgage solutions just for you.

Tom and Samantha were in their mid-forties, self-employed with a very small mortgage on their home. Thinking about their old age, they decided to buy something they could fix up, rent out and put the income towards their retirement. They'd seen a couple of properties at auction that also had the potential for loft conversions.

When they came to us, Tom and Samantha already had a substantial deposit and were eager to get going.

Having made a successful bid on a two bedroom town house at auction, they needed to find the balance within 30 days.

Our mortgage broker met with the couple and made a recommendation based on their specific needs. In this instance a re-mortgage would take too long, their best option was for him to arrange a secured loan. This way they could have the money in a matter of weeks and still continue to enjoy the benefits of their current mortgage, which was at an unbelievably low rate of interest.

Within three weeks the loan was approved and Tom and Samantha paid for their new property in full with a bit left over for the loft conversion.

Come and see us for a no obligation free consultation at 390a Leagrave Road, Luton LU3 1RG or call us on 01582 700388 (visit our website at www.carpathianfinance.co.uk or email info@carpathian-finance.co.uk)

First Ford Vignale Mondeo unveiled in new brand . . .

Ford Motor Company has unveiled the production version of the Ford Vignale Mondeo – the first vehicle to be introduced as part of Ford's new Vignale brand.

Each Ford Vignale model is hand-finished in a special Vignale Centre at Ford's manufacturing facility in Valencia, Spain. Available in four-door and estate bodystyles, the Ford Vignale Mondeo delivers superior refinement with the European debut of Ford's Active Noise Cancellation technology, quilted and tuxedo-stitched leather interior and exclusive Vignale Nocciola metallic paint colour.

Customers can now use Ford's new dedicated Ford Vignale internet destination and online configurator to explore options and pricing. The car will be available to order from May at new flagship Ford stores opening across the UK, priced from £29,045.

The Ford Vignale Mondeo delivers advanced technologies including Pre-Collision Assist

NEW: Ford has launched its new model which has been hand finished in Spain with Pedestrian Detection, which can reduce the severity of some frontal collisions involving vehicles and pedestrians, or help drivers avoid some impacts altogether. Powerful and fuel efficient powertrains include Ford's new 210PS Bi-turbo 2.0-litre TDCi diesel, 240PS EcoBoost petrol, and 187PS petrol-electric hybrid. Ford's Intelligent All-Wheel Drive (iAWD) which automatically enhances traction and road-holding, is also available.

Vignale customers will also receive a personalised service for the duration of their vehicle ownership, supported by a Vignale relationship manager and 24-hour free-phone assistance from the Vignale OneCall service.

Ford's new Vignale Service smartphone app will support customers with GPS-enabled services including Vignale Park Me, which allows drivers to record an exact location and time elapsed since parking their vehicle. Using online map data, the app can also help drivers locate fuel stations, and provides a one-touch connection with emergency services or Vignale OneCall.

The new Vignale Mondeo delivers a whisper-quiet, smooth and comfortable ride using sophisticated technologies and an advanced chassis structure.

Ford Vignale models are exclusively available to order in the UK from Ford store locations opening across the country.

Nissan Juke

Take a look inside . . .

If you need a car that blends into the background look somewhere else.

Nissan's Juke has sold like hot cakes and the latest update keeps the design extreme but adds smarter technology, cleaner engines and more personalisation options.

Yes, the Juke does still look like either something dredged up from the abyssal depths of the ocean or a fun, friendly and futuristic little runabout, depending on your perspective.

Whichever camp you're in, you have to hand it to Nissan for not losing its resolve and watering this version down.

At the front, the upper lamps have been redesigned and now incorporate bi-intensity LED daytime running lamps, while the headlamps now have Xenon bulbs for better visibility.

Door mirrors get LED indicators and, where fitted, cameras for the Around View Monitor. Bumpers, tail lights, alloy wheels and available colours have all been tweaked.

The Sunlight Yellow metallic is sure to be popular with those who resolutely refuse to blend in. Nissan also offers coloured inserts which can be applied to the mirror caps, side sills, roof spoiler and door handles in order to further personalise the exterior.

You probably know the guy who complains that all new cars look the same but has nothing good to say when Nissan brings out something different and fresh.

Don't be that guy. The Juke has deservedly carved itself a lucrative niche for itself with an inexpensive vehicle that drives well, is cheap to run and which isn't afraid to assert its own personality.

The latest changes don't alter that fundamental appeal but adding tech inside and some uprated petrol engines certainly isn't going to do the Juke's prospects any harm.

Should Nissan have gone a little further with the exterior changes? I'm not so sure. The Juke was already an extreme-looking thing and going overboard with styling updates would have smacked of trying too hard. As it stands, it'll continue to be the car that none of its rivals have come close to answering.

Boro are bashed but Town can't pull off final miracle

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

SKY BET LEAGUE TWO
LUTON TOWN

DID anyone really expect an eight goal swing for Luton?

Try two against a largely second string Stevenage side whose minds were already on an extended season in the League Two play-offs. No, this was the deadest of dead rubbers. In having to wipe out that inferior goal difference, which saw them trail Plymouth in League Two, Town's pre-game target to join Boro would have been nigh-on impossible for a team that knew where the goal was.

The Hatters' last memory of such things was busy firing Brentford into the Championship play-offs.

Andre Gray's former side, however, created enough chances to at least make the afternoon interesting, albeit against a Stevenage side with eight changes. The score alone tells you this game and this first season back in the Football League was written off as a going concern long before the final whistle.

Now an important summer awaits where boss John Still must try to add some much-needed killer instinct.

He said: "Would I have settled for this at the start of the season? My answer to that would be no, I wouldn't have settled for it because I wanted to go up. We've done everything we can to go up."

"I can turn around and give as many excuses as I want [as to] why we haven't gone up. I have. It's well documented about injuries. "At the end of the day I'm very proud of where we are. I've very proud of the progress we've made and I'm very proud of the infrastructure that's been put into everything."

"On my first day here, I always remember saying about building foundations to build the football club from. When we do that, and we will do that, when John Still's long gone, if they stay with that this club will grow and grow."

Progress, however, is relative. They are no longer in the Conference. That's progress. And, had Luton laboured in the bottom half of the table and then scrapped their way to this final game, entertaining hopes of the play-offs, only to fall short, that too would have been progress.

But to have occupied the top three or four spots for so long and then slipped down and down to suffer this damp squib ending is just a big balls-up.

The talk can be long and extensive into the standard of referees, or a squad, half of which appeared to be made of papier mâché, but their form since March was that of relegation fodder. The league table and an eighth placed finish, inevitably, does not lie.

Yet, in this finale there was something to cheer as early as the fifth minute when Elliot Lee's shot was saved but Mark Cullen fired in the rebound. Town's top scorer – with possibly his last strike for the club – celebrated by pumping his fist like the impossible dream could still happen, not knowing that by then Ruben Reid had already fired Plymouth in front against title chasing Shrewsbury. One step forward, one step back. That was as exciting as it got and the only exhibition of football in a first half dominated by an impotent aerial battle of abject tedium.

On a rare occasion the ball brushed the turf, Jonathan Smith shot harmlessly at keeper Chris Day without spotting an unmarked Jake Howells, poised and waiting for a simple tap-in.

That pattern of pitiable play was spectacularly broken on the stroke of half time when Michael Harriman volleyed into the top corner. However, in deepest darkest Shropshire, Plymouth had already poked another past Shrewsbury.

Oh well, at least the Bedfordshire-

Hertfordshire cross border bragging rights went their way. But more painful to note that, despite the wholesale changes on show, this poor Stevenage side could yet make it to League One.

Much improved was the second half showing, though Cullen still wasted a hat-trick of chances for a third Luton goal – steering wide after determined work from Lee, blasting at Day after breaking clear and then dragging wide.

When Luke Wilkinson saw a header cleared off the line by Roarie Deacon, Harriman drilled wide and Lee passed into the gloves of Day, it summed up Town's season at the sharp end.

For that, there is much progress still to be made.

Suffolk clash next for county as they bid to recover from defeat against Hertfordshire

CRICKET

BEDFORDSHIRE will be bidding to bounce back from an opening defeat when their Unicorns Knock-Out Trophy campaign continues with a home clash against Suffolk today.

The county lost their opening game in the 50-over competition against Hertfordshire by four wickets last weekend and they have little margin for error as only the top two sides in their five team group will progress to the quarter finals.

Andy Reynoldson replaced James Middlebrook as skipper after the latter signed a short term deal with Yorkshire but after winning the toss and electing to bat, Bedfordshire posted a sub-par total of 204 at Hertford CC.

The top order were dismissed relatively cheaply to leave the visitors on 58-4, before a partnership of 56 between Reynoldson and Nick Lee dragged Beds back into contention.

Reynoldson eventually fell for 35 – the highest Beds score – with Lee and then Ed Wharton both making 34 in their total.

In reply, Beds had Herts in trouble at 18-2 and then 96-5, but Frazer and Reece Hussain added 65 before the former was caught by Wharton off the bowling of Michael Ellis for exactly 50.

That left the Herts score on 161-6 but Beds could not finish off the tail as Hussain, who finished unbeaten on 40, and James Scott, who was 21 not out, saw them over the line.

Hertfordshire made it two wins from two thanks to their victory and are top of the standings in the early going.

As well as Suffolk, Bedfordshire will also come up against Cambridgeshire and Norfolk in the group stages of the competition before the three day Minor Counties action gets underway.

Today's game is being played at Dunstable Town CC, starting at 11am.

Meanwhile, the local cricket season began at the weekend with Bedfordshire clubs in action in the Four Counties League.

LUTON RFC missed out on silverware on Wednesday night as they were edged out 18-16 by Kettering in the East Midlands Cup final.

Joe Daniel converted a penalty with the last kick of the game to send Luton to defeat at Bedford Blues' Goldington Road home.

Earlier, Luton had recovered from being 10-3 down to move 16-10 in front, but Kettering both started and finished strongly in their victory.

Having been well beaten by a dominant Peterborough Lions side in the final last season, as well as being narrowly overcome by Amptill in the showpiece two years ago, Luton were in no mood to make it three disappointments in a row.

However, it wasn't to be for the side who recorded a disappointing mid-table finish in London One North this season.

Going into the closing minutes of the game six points ahead, Luton were hauled back firstly by an unconverted try and then by the decisive penalty five minutes later.

They had controlled what was, at times, a scrappy affair, and it looked like they'd secured the silverware when scrum-half Tom Mahendren jinxed through to touch down midway through the second half to put Luton 13-10 ahead. Rik Hobbs then added a penalty to open up a six-point gap at 16-10.

However, Kettering dug deep and applied phase after phase of pressure, at times throwing all 15 players into mauls that drove at the Luton try-line.

"When I scored we had all the momentum," said Mahendren. "I thought 'we've got this' to be honest. It was our silly mistakes that got them back into the game, it's gutting, silly errors have cost us in the end."

"We thought we were going to clinch it at the end there," added Luton's first-team manager Dicky Jones.

"But that's sport, that's how it goes sometimes. I am absolutely torn in two, to come that close, particularly after the last couple of years.

"But it is what it is, we'll take away what we can and look to build on this over the summer."

Tom Bridgeman scored the game's first try for Kettering, converted by Daniel, to give his side a 7-0 lead.

Hobbs and Daniel then traded penalties for 10-3 before another kick from the former brought it back to 10-6 prior to Mahendren's converted try.

However, Damien Conyard bagged Kettering key's try with his side 16-10 behind and although Daniel missed the conversion to put his side in front, he made no mistake with a nerveless penalty late on.

Barton Rovers are one game away from promotion after a dramatic penalty shoot-out victory in their play-off semi-final with Royston Town on Tuesday evening.

Rovers finished fifth in the Southern League Division One Central and faced a one-off clash away at runners-up Royston, and they came through after the match finished 0-0 following extra time.

They will now travel to Bedworth United for the final tomorrow with a place in the Southern Premier Division at stake.

Barton edged the shoot-out 5-4 after Robbie Nightingale's spot kick was saved by Kyle Forster.

Both sides found themselves down to ten men just before the break, with Royston captain Scott Bridges shown a straight red for an ill-timed lunge on Alex Condon, pictured.

This sparked a melee that saw Barton's Pete Gatti pick up a second booking for his involvement.

Kick-off in tomorrow's final is 3pm and Barton will join Dunstable Town at the higher level if they are successful. Meanwhile, Barton's EJA U17 side went down 3-2 to Chelmsford City in the League Cup Final at Potters Bar.

We've made remarkable strides says Town boss

STRIDES: John Still has been impressed with Luton's progress

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

MANAGER John Still insists that Luton Town have had a 'remarkable season' – despite blowing their chances of joining the League Two play-off party.

Though Town spent much of the campaign in either the top three or the top seven, their woeful form of the last two months, capped off by Elliot Justham's goalkeeping blunder in the 1-0 defeat at Southend last Saturday, left them with too much to do going into the final game with Stevenage yesterday.

Still said after Southend: "The tale of the tape is that we'll finish eighth or ninth, something like that, and I actually think that's a remarkable season."

The manager has always maintained that last year's record breaking title tilt in the Conference brought success ahead of schedule, in his first full season in charge, but Town's maiden season back in the Football League for five years has been rather more sobering, with Still rarely able to pick his strongest 11 due to injuries to key players.

He said: "It's so difficult because things happen in football and you can't [put your finger on it], but if someone can tell me the amount of disruption we've had in our team is normal, I don't see it as normal. I think it's abnormal."

"We've had to keep picking ourselves up and dusting ourselves down, non-stop."

"Have we put in some disappointing performances? Yes we have. But have the players, to a man, gone out and given it everything? Yes they have."

"It's an incredible end, coming up to two seasons, to get up [from the Conference] at the first opportunity and to be a contender on the second opportunity is fantastic."

"We've made fantastic strides, absolutely fantastic strides. I remember losing to Hyde. We've made unbelievable strides."

"Disappointment? Yes, we're all disappointed, but if you go through life and you don't suffer and have disappointment, you're a very lucky young man."

Captain Steve McNulty, who was named in the League Two player of the year team 48 hours after the defeat at Southend, said: "We've made massive steps as a group of lads and as a club but we're all human and if you sit down and ask every one of the lads, with the position that we did put ourselves in, it'd be stupid if you weren't disappointed. Of course you're going to be disappointed."

"We've made strides and a lot of progress on and off the pitch, so you've got to take the positives. Take the negatives on board as well but it's important that we do take the positives from the season."
